23rd EUROPEAN CONFERENCE ON GENERAL THORACIC SURGERY

31 May – 3 June 2015 | Lisbon, Portugal

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Members, Distinguished Guests and Friends,

On behalf of the Councillors and the Program Committee of the European Society of Thoracic Surgeons, it is my pleasure to welcome you to Lisbon, the westernmost capital of Europe on the Atlantic Ocean, for the 23rd European Conference on General Thoracic Surgery. This will be our largest global reunion of general thoracic surgeons with 1,500 participants expected.

The outstanding program includes the lectures of special speakers, joint sessions with international scientific societies, breakfast sessions given by experts invited from all over the world, working group sessions and techno meetings. In addition, the program will include parallel sessions with a selection of the best of the submitted abstracts. This year we will host the 7th Joint Collaborative Post-Graduate course organised by Dirk Van Raemdonck and Alan Sihoe. I hope this course will attract the participants to highly interactive discussions and learning. This program would not be possible without the efforts of our organising Committee Chair and Director of Annual Meetings, Enrico Ruffini.

Stay tuned for our greatly anticipated special sessions on Wednesday morning. I highly encourage all of the participants to arrange their travel itineraries to stay through to Wednesday afternoon.

A program of this size requires a lot of planning. I would like to thank the members of the Program Committee for their continuous hard work. I would also like to thank the individuals and societies who have contributed to the organisation of the scientific sessions.

Your full and active participation will make this the most memorable conference. As we contribute our work and experience, we will develop new sources of collaboration and friendship. This will expand and advance our society into new dimensions. These memorable days filled with the exchange of knowledge, skills and ideas would not be possible without the generous support of our industry partners, who have been a part of all of the ESTS conferences.

It is my pleasure to invite you to join us in Lisbon, a wonderful city on the Atlantic coast with a Mediterranean atmosphere.

Alper Toker

ESTS President

23rd EUROPEAN CONFERENCE ON GENERAL THORACIC SURGERY

31 May – 3 June 2015 | Lisbon, Portugal

WELCOME MESSAGE

Dear Colleagues, Guests and Friends

Between 31 May and 3 June 2015, the Local Organizing Committee would like to welcome you to Lisbon, to the 23rd European Conference on General Thoracic Surgery.

Lisbon city has a population of 550,000 but the Greater Lisbon Area is the country's largest population centre, with 2,821,697 inhabitants (2011), or around 20% of Portugal's entire population. It is home to four public universities, with a total of some 100,000 students.

Lisbon occupies an advantageous geographical position, with archaeological evidence indicating that it was first settled over 6,000 years ago. Its location has proved favourable to the shipping and commercial activity that has attracted so many peoples over the ages, from Phoenicians to Greeks and Romans to Arabs.

Throughout the 15th Century and into the early 16th Century, such Portuguese navigators as Vasco da Gama, Pedro Álvares Cabral and Ferdinand Magellan set sail from here in their caravels. They opened up the world for Europeans and helped forge contacts between the people of the various continents. The Belém Tower and the Jerónimos Monastery, masterpieces of the Portuguese art and architecture of the time, are just two of the monuments that continue to evoke the era that was immortalised by the Portuguese poet Luís Vaz de Camões (1524-1580) in his celebrated work "The Lusiads".

Lisbon is a city that is both ages-old and cosmopolitan. Its soul has always been manifest in the dialogue and meeting of cultures and civilisations. This interaction takes place on the open stage that nestles between the "seven hills" that mythically encircle the city and the Tejo River, whose horizon is a mystifying melding of a unique quality of light and the blue of the sky.

A city where poets, heirs of the old gods, sit in cafés and write in the voice of Fernando Pessoa (1888-1935), the universally renowned poet whose multiple personality was reflected in his various heteronyms and in an extensive opus that was published throughout the world. These poets write "Saudade" (longing), a word that epitomises a unique emotion, moored between the past and the future but with eyes firmly set on the present. "Saudade" is the soul of Fado, an urban song form that was recognised by UNESCO in 2011 as an intangible cultural heritage of humanity. We invite you to come and hear it – and feel it – in Alfama, one of the city's historical neighbourhoods. Here you will find the Fado Museum and myriad iconic "Fado Houses", which open their doors each night to offer visitors a unique and unforgettable experience.

23rd EUROPEAN CONFERENCE ON GENERAL THORACIC SURGERY

31 May – 3 June 2015 | Lisbon, Portugal

Lisbon is just a short 1 to 3 hour flight from most European cities and only 5 to 8 hours from North America. Lisbon airport is centrally located and transfer times to the city are as short as 15 minutes. The airport is served by all major airlines and there are daily non-stop connections to all major European cities as well as to the US, South America and Africa.

The 23rd ESTS European Conference on General Thoracic Surgery will be held at the Lisbon Congress Centre, located in the Belém neighbourhood, close to the Jerónimos Monastery, the Belém Tower and the River Tejo. Riverside restaurants are just a short walk from the conference centre. The buses and trams that pass right by the congress centre also interchange with the metro.

With its mild climate, 3,000 hours of sunshine per year and 850 km of splendid beaches bathed by the Atlantic Ocean, Portugal is the perfect holiday destination all year round.

I encourage you to spend a few extra days in Portugal. For visitors, Lisbon is at the heart of a vast resort. Along the coast road, you'll find beaches and beach resorts populated by magnificent early 20th Century villas and hotels, with their accompanying marinas, terraces and first-class golf courses. Further along the coast, you'll come across world-renowned surfing beaches and the palaces that are scattered across the cultural landscape of Sintra, a World Heritage Site.

Portugal has the oldest borders of any country in Europe. Within these borders, the country offers an exceptionally varied range of landscapes in a relatively compact area. On offer are myriad leisure activities and a truly unique cultural heritage, in which tradition and modernity blend in perfect harmony. Our superb cuisine, fine wines and hospitable people make this a tourist paradise of the highest quality.

Come to the 23rd ESTS Annual Meeting 2015 and discover the charms of our country, too.

23rd EUROPEAN CONFERENCE ON GENERAL THORACIC SURGERY

31 May – 3 June 2015 | Lisbon, Portugal

The programme committee will meet 13-14 February 2015. The best abstracts are selected based on the average score by the reviewers from 2 rounds and allocated for presentations as oral, forum, case report, video or poster. Selected abstracts are considered to be incorporated in special/joint sessions along with invited lectures based on their relevance with the topic of the session. Abstract acceptance and programme scheduling will be communicated to the corresponding author's e-mail address early March 2015.

For your abstract to be included in the final scientific programme, it is mandatory to register for the congress and to settle payment as soon as you have received the notification of abstract acceptance.

Please check the eligibility for prize awards.

The presenter of an accepted abstract will also be asked to complete a form to be signed at the time of uploading the presentation to state whether his/her presentation can be released or cancelled after the meeting.

Abstracts will be published in an online supplement of the Interactive Journal for Cardiovascular and Thoracic Surgery.

IMPORTANT:

ESTS expects that all speakers presenting in ORAL sessions and the Brompton and Young Investigator Award sessions to submit full manuscripts online for review to the European Journal of Cardio-Thoracic Surgery (EJCTS) at the time of the meeting. Moreover the prize winners in all other prize sessions are expected to submit full manuscripts online for review to the European Journal of Cardio-Thoracic Surgery (EJCTS) at the time of the meeting.

Note that the Programme Committee will consider the previous manuscript submission record of ALL speakers when preparing future ESTS meetings.

Submission for review of forum, case report, video or poster presentations to either EJCTS or ICVTS is optional but welcomed.

Manuscripts should be prepared and submitted according to the Instructions to Authors (follow relevant link):

> EJCTS

The manuscript submission is online only at: <http://ejcts.oxfordjournals.org/>

Please mention "Presented at the 23rd European Conference on General Thoracic Surgery of the European Society of Thoracic Surgeons, Lisbon, 31 May – 3 June 2015," on the title page of the manuscript.

ESTS requires that all speakers competing for the Brompton & Young Investigators Prize sessions submit full manuscripts by e-mail to the Chair of the Programme Committee (sue@ests.org.uk) one month before the meeting at the latest, since these papers are included in the total scoring by the jury. The audio-visual recording of the scientific presentations will be the property of the ESTS.

ABOUT LISBON

Lisbon (Lisboa)

Lisbon always offers something special to its visitors and however many descriptions you have read, you will only know which Lisbon is yours once you have arrived here. We will lend the climate, colors, gastronomy, history, diverse culture life and the breathtaking landscape in the surroundings to your visit.

RICHLY CAPTIVATING LISBON INVITES YOU!

Tram in Lisbon

Legend has it that Lisbon was founded by Ulysses. The name comes from “Olissipo”, which has its origins in the Phoenician words “Allis Ubbo”, meaning “enchanted port”.

Most likely it was founded by the Phoenicians and styled by the Moors which shows in the strong Arabic influences. It was, after all, ruled by the Moors for 450 years. In the 12th century the Christians reconquered the city but it was not until the mid-13th century that Lisbon became the country's capital.

Over the past few years the city has prepared itself for the future. Lisboa held an enormously successful international EXPO in 1998 and European Football Championship in 2004. As a result, a city that was already vibrant and diverse rapidly acquired a more modern and avant-garde dimension. As The Observer said, “Lisbon itself changed, phoenix-like, into a more modern and colourful city”. Lisbon is an historic capital, a potpourri of unusual character and charm, where 800 years of cultural influences mingle with modern trends and life styles creating spectacular contrasts.
